

Internship Editorial for the Netherlands in Berlin

Visual Meta GmbH is an innovative Internet company based in the heart of Berlin, which has grown rapidly since being founded in 2009. Since December 2011 our company has been taken over by the Axel Springer Group.

We run shopping platforms named LadenZeile and ShopAlike in several European countries, offering fashion, furniture and a variety of other products to our users. Our service is used by thousands of daily visitors and an ever-increasing number of partner shops.

Now we are looking for motivated interns (m/f) as soon as possible who master the Dutch language fluently to support our editorial team and promote the expansion of our shopping portal www.Shopalike.nl!

Your profile:

- Passion for writing
- Fluent in spoken and written Dutch
- Good English skills, German is a plus
- Enthusiasm for e-commerce and online shopping
- Proactive, conscientious, accurate, hardworking, self-reliant and self-dependent
- At least three months time

Your responsibilities:

- Writing copies and articles for our website www.shopalike.nl and working in online marketing
- Taking care of on-page quality and providing relevant content for the platform & the blog
- Market- and competitors analysis
- Affiliate marketing and social media marketing (Facebook, Twitter, Google+, etc.)

What we offer:

- Internship-compensation
- Full-time employment
- Integration into a committed, successful and international team
- Chance to write about your favorite products and trends
- Opportunity to work independently and gain a lot of insight into the field of e-commerce and Business Development
- Healthy snacks (fruits, cereals), water and hot drinks
- Team events, corporate events and leisure activities

If you are interested in an exciting position in a great team, we are looking forward to receiving your English application via e-mail (Please don't forget the subject: "Internship editorial NL") to:
